

Sophia Lee

Sophia Lee is Chief Counsel in Litigation at Sunoco, Inc., at its corporate headquarters located in Center City Philadelphia. The Litigation Group is responsible for managing Sunoco's portfolio of nationwide litigation, including commercial, environmental, personal injury, toxic tort and products liability matters, as well as in developing best litigation practices.

Previously, Sophia was associated with the litigation department at Reed Smith LLP and the labor and employment department at Blank Rome LLP. She also served as a federal judicial law clerk to the late Honorable James McGirr Kelly, United States District Judge for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Sophia received her J.D. and LL.M. in Trial Advocacy from Temple University James E. Beasley School of Law, where she was a member of the Temple Law Review and the Moot Court Honor Society. She received her B.A. in English from Cornell University.

Sophia is Secretary of the Philadelphia Bar Association and a former Executive Committee member of the Young Lawyers Division. She is also a Litigation Committee Co-Chair for the National Asian Pacific American Bar Association and a past president of the Asian Pacific American Bar Association of Pennsylvania. Sophia is also active in Philadelphia's civic and charitable communities, serving as Vice Chair of the Mayor's Commission on Asian American Affairs and Board Chair of the Asian Arts Initiative. She also serves on the boards of the Philadelphia Education Fund, Philadelphia Volunteers for the Indigent Program and the Women's Law Project.